WORKSHOPS PRESENTED BY:

Annie Baggett of Sunshine Lavender Farm in North Carolina, with her family, runs their lavender business on the site of an old dairy. Her business sells lavender at local stores, the local farmers market and through farm events. Please see and read more about their lovely farm on the website. Annie has been teaching classes at Pharsalia for six years and her classes always are full to bursting.

Don Haynie of the former Buffalo Springs Herb Farm, has long been a popular speaker for the traditional and contemporary use of herbs in the garden, kitchen and home. His talks are informative with many special tips, and also quite entertaining. Pharsalia is honored to host one of his much sought after presentations.

Meg Laughon's unique flower arrangements always add the finishing touch to a special occasion. She is the former co-owner of Laughon/Patterson, a custom floral design business in Lynchburg, VA, who specialized in weddings and party events for over twenty years. As a member of Hillside Garden Club, Meg contributes her flower arranging talents and expertise to flower shows and Garden Club of Virginia events.

Foxie Morgan of Pharsalia Events: Foxie, our host, is also a market gardener and a long time cut flower grower. She is a member of the Association of Specialty Cut Flower Growers and has developed Pharsalia as a cut flower farm. Pharsalia, a National Historic Landmark property, is also available for weddings, private parties and events.

Eileen Stephens (aka 'Phlower Lady') of Green and Gold from Earlysville, VA, has produced cut flowers for sale at the Charlottesville City Market and to local florists for over twenty years. For ten of those years she also sold bedding plants, perennials and heirloom vegetable seedlings by individual subscription. She is a long time member of the Association of Specialty Cut Flower Growers.

Susan B. Viemeister is a landscape designer and certified horticulturalist. She works with homeowners and contractors from Charlottesville to Lynchburg and has given talks to gardening clubs and professional groups in Central Virginia for over ten years. She is the head gardener and landscape designer for Pharsalia.

Paul Westervelt worked as a grower at Riverbend Nursery and is now the Annual & Perennial Production Manager at Saunders Brothers, Inc. in Nelson County. He's responsible for all aspects of color production from inspirational choices to finished product. Paul is a dynamic speaker and a seriously, enthusiastic plant lover.
